FUIB wins six nominations at FinAwards 2024

FinAwards 2024 expert panel has recognised FUIB banking services as one of the best and most accessible to Ukrainians. The annual FinAwards, founded by Minfin and Finance.ua media outlets, aims to distinguish the best financial solutions and companies providing high quality services in financial sector. This year, the judge panel has praised the bank's performance in the Ukrainian financial market and awarded FUIB in six nominations.

FUIB won gold for the Best Credit Card with its vseMOZHU Online offering. Furthermore, FUIB won several personal nominations.

FUIB's Board Chairman Serhiy Chernenko was named the banker of the year. Deputy Board Chairman Dmytro Polishchuk became the best retail business manager of 2023. Ksenia Sikorska came second in the Best Marketing Manager category.

FUIB also received two bronze awards, in Card No. 1 in Wallet category with its vseKARTA debit card, and in the Best Premium Card nomination.

FinAwards is the annual professional contest. Banks were judged by a jury of experts in addition to public online voting on the contest's website. The award was founded by Minfin and finance.ua websites. The event was organised by BankOnline company, one of the country's leading finance and technology conference platforms.
