Metinvest donates off-road vehicles valued at UAH 3 million to Lyut joint assault brigade

Lyut (Fury) joint assault brigade of the National Police of Ukraine has received a generous donation from Metinvest Group as part of Rinat Akhmetov's Steel Front military initiative. The donation consists of five off-road vehicles, with a total value of UAH 3 million.

The Lyut brigade, part of the Offensive Guard, operates in the challenging conflict areas of Klishchiivka and Kurdiuivka. These are high intensity combat areas where vehicles are frequently subjected to extreme conditions. Therefore, the timely replacement and update of their vehicle fleet is a critical priority. Metinvest Group has generously provided five pickup trucks to meet the needs of the Lyut brigade.
