Former French Special Envoy Pierre Heilbronn joins DTEK Advisory Council

SCM's energy business DTEK is pleased to announce the appointment of Pierre Heilbronn, former Special Envoy of the President of France for Ukraine's Relief and Reconstruction, to its Advisory Council.

His appointment strengthens the Advisory Council's role as a forum for independent, high-level guidance to the Group on key issues including energy security, economic recovery and Ukraine's integration with Europe.

In his role on the Council, Pierre will contribute his expertise to support DTEK's strategic priorities with a particular focus on reconstruction finance, economic policy, economic security and engagement with international financial institutions, investors and strategic partners in support of Ukraine's recovery.

Pierre is a French specialist in international finance, economic policy and European affairs, with extensive experience across European institutions, development finance and government.

From 2023 to 2025, he served as the Special Envoy of the President of France for Ukraine's Relief and Reconstruction, coordinating France's support for Ukraine's recovery.

Previously, he served as Vice-President of the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD), where he played a key role in promoting investment and economic reform across emerging markets. He has also held senior roles within the French government and European institutions.

In 2026, he became Chair of the Board of the Ukraine Cultural Heritage Fund.

Alongside his public service, he teaches at Sciences Po and serves as Scientific Director of the Europe in the World programme, focusing on European integration, strategic sectors, economic security and the mobilisation of public and private investment.

DTEK CEO Maxim Timchenko said:

“Pierre Heilbronn brings outstanding experience in reconstruction finance and European policy at a pivotal time for Ukraine. His insight will strengthen the Advisory Council's ability to provide practical, strategic guidance as we work to accelerate recovery, attract investment and deepen Ukraine's integration with Europe."

Commenting on his appointment, Pierre Heilbronn said:

"DTEK's Advisory Council brings together leading international expertise at a critical moment for Ukraine's recovery and European integration. I am delighted to join the Council and look forward to contributing to its work in support of investment, economic resilience and Ukraine's successful integration into the European economic and energy space. Ukraine's energy transformation is not only a national recovery project; it is also an important contribution to Europe's future energy security and competitiveness."

The DTEK Advisory Council brings together policymakers, economists, diplomats and industry experts to support the Group's long-term strategy. Its work focuses on strengthening energy security, supporting Ukraine's economic recovery and advancing integration with European markets.
