SCM exits its investment in agriculture

International investment company SCM has reached an agreement to sell its stake in the agricultural company HarvEast to PARALLEL NAFTA LIMITED.

On 5 November 2026, the Antimonopoly Committee of Ukraine granted PARALLEL NAFTA LIMITED permission to acquire control of UA AGROCOM LIMITED and UAC FINANCE LIMITED (Tortola, British Virgin Islands), the holding companies of HarvEast.

By agreement between the parties, the value of the deal is not being disclosed.

> "For SCM, this deal is a step driven by wartime conditions, and it continues our strategy of focusing our investment portfolio. The capital received will be reinvested in developing key business areas in Ukraine and in helping the country through the Rinat Akhmetov Foundation and the Heart of Azovstal and Steel Front projects," said Natalya Yemchenko, Chief Corporate Affairs Officer at SCM.

The change of investor will not affect HarvEast's current operations or its obligations. All operations are continuing as normal. Agreements with partners, land share owners, landlords and local communities remain fully in force, both while the deal is being completed and after it closes in 2027.
